JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 28 September 1972

1. (Confidential - GLC) In response to his inquiry I provided J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, with some unclassified biographic data on the three Soviets he asked us about. These three men all have something to do with Soviet trade in wheat and grain or with cargo shipping. They reportedly came to the United States on 30 July for meetings with one of the U.S. grain export corporations.
2. (Unclassified - RJK) Delivered to the offices of Senators Adlai Stevenson, III (D., Ill.), George McGovern (D., S. Dak.), Fred Harris (D., Okla.), Henry Jackson (D., Wash.), and J. W. Fulbright (D., Ark.), and Representative Clarence Long (D., Md.), FBIS items in which their names were mentioned.
3. (Unclassified - RJK) Delivered a suggested reply and supporting material requested by [] a constituent of Senator John Sparkman (D., Ala.), to the Senator's office. 25X1
4. (Confidential - JGO) In response to a call from [] 25X1
DDP/NARCOG, concerning a possible briefing on recent reports from Burma and Thailand, I tried to reach Messrs. Robert Boyer and John Brady, House Foreign Affairs Committee staff, but both had left the office for the day. A message was left that I had called and that I will contact them tomorrow. 25X1
[] has been advised.

6. (Confidential - JGO) Met with Miss Dorothy Fosdick, Staff Director, National Security and International Operations Subcommittee, who told me that Senator Jackson is planning to travel to China some time after the elections. Mr. Charles Horner, of the Subcommittee staff, will be handling the trip preparations. Miss Fosdick asked if a briefing could be scheduled for herself and Mr. Horner on China. Coverage should include political, military and economic spheres together with relations in Europe and east Europe. She also asked if some emphasis could be given to China/Soviet relations in Iraq, Iran and the sheikhdoms concerning oil. She said information we could provide on China/Japan negotiations would also be appreciated. I told her I would relay her request.

7. (Internal Use Only - JGO) Met with Mr. Richard Perle, Senate National Security and International Operations Subcommittee staff, and gave him the translations of the Yiddish and Soviet letter that were requested earlier in the week.

8. (Internal Use Only - JGO) Talked to Mr. Robert Blum, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, at the suggestion of Angus Thuermer and told him that Ray Cromley, whose reports are contained in the OSS files on the Dixie mission, is a free-lance writer in the Washington area and can be located through the telephone book. I also gave him the name of Professor Athalstan Spilhaus, a Woodrow Wilson scholar at the Smithsonian. Mr. Blum said that these names would be most helpful. He made no mention of when he will be returning to Headquarters to further refine the documents selected for declassification during his visit to Headquarters on Wednesday.

9. (Confidential - JGO) Met with Mr. Steve Berg, Administrative Assistant to Representative Robert H. Steele (R., Conn.), and returned to him the original of a letter from Representative Steele's field office in Connecticut concerning the complaint of a constituent, [redacted] 25X1 I told Mr. Berg that Mrs. [redacted] mentioned in the correspondence 25X1 is an Agency employee and that [redacted] complaint had been fully 25X1 reviewed after the first of her many phone calls to our Office of Security. I told him that in our determination the matter was a personal one between the two families. Mr. Berg thanked me very much for coming by and asked if the original of the correspondence could be returned to Representative Steele "as if it had never been sent in the first place." I responded that we would be pleased to do so and left the letter with him.

10. (Unclassified - JGO) In the absence of Richard Barton, Employee Benefits Subcommittee Staff of House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, I left a message with his secretary, Jane Hatcherson, that [redacted] 25X1 [redacted] who had been recommended for an interview, has not filed an 25X1 application nor scheduled herself for testing. In consequence her file is being closed.

11. (Unclassified - JGO) Met with Mr. John Martiny, Chief Counsel, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, and thanked him for the consideration and assistance given the Agency with regard to the Ervin bill. Mr. Martiny noted that we will probably have the same problem to face in the next Congress.
